

Partnerships for Education conference

Saturday
March 21, 2009
8:30am-3:30pm
Southern NH University
Manchester, NH

FAMILY ENGAGEMENT: Beyond Policy Into Practice

Featuring presentations and workshops for strengthening Family-School-Community Partnerships in New Hampshire

Partners

NH Department of Education * NEA-NH
Parent Information Center on Special Education * NH Connections
NH State PIRC * SSECT * NH PTA
Manchester Coalition for Quality Education * NAMI-NH
National Congress for Fathers and Children NH * NH Association of Special Education Administrators
(See more at www.nhpirc.org/P4E2009)

Cost: $15/person*
(includes breakfast & lunch)
Pre-registration is required.
To register or for more information, contact:

603 224-7005 or toll-free 800 947-7005
Fax: (603) 224-4365
admin@parentinformationcenter.org

* Please inquire about incentives for teachers, PTA members, and school teams, and parent scholarships & child care stipends. Educators will receive Certificates of Attendance for P.D.

KEYNOTE PRESENTER

Dr. Steven Constantino
Author of the best-selling book,
Engaging All Families.

As principal of Stonewall Jackson High School in Manassas, VA, Dr. Constantino elevated one of the lowest-performing schools in Virginia to Time Magazine's "School of the Year."

Workshop topics include:

- * Bringing the Parent Involvement Policy to Life
- * Why Homework?
- * Fathers and Education
- * Assessing Family Engagement
- * Resolving Conflicts Peacefully
- * Response to Intervention
- * Is Your School Family-Friendly?
- * Advocacy is not a 4-Letter Word
- * Preparing for Life After High School
- * Reading is FUN-damental
- * Effective Outreach to Ethnic Communities
- * Special Education PTAs

Who Should Attend? All are Welcome:
Parents, Teachers, Administrators, Businesses,
Community- and Faith-Based Organizations

Online Registration available!
Visit www.nhpirc.org/P4E2009/ or www.picnh.org